DEDICATION

Among us there is a man famous in many professions—for his music, compositions, artistry, and professorship. No idle boast for Professor Paul de Launay possesses as rewards, the title of 'Officer d'Academie, the Grand Prix, and First Prize, from Paris Society of Artists. He is the recipient of prizes from contests in music and art. A publishing house in London, England, has introduced many of his compositions for piano, voice, organ, and chamber music. Born and educated in Paris, France, the son of an American Baptist minister, Professor de Launay has served Howard College in the capacity of director of music and art and professor of French since the year of 1919. The many graduates will always have a pleasant memory of marching down the aisle to the sweet strains from the mighty organ, rendered by the master hands of our beloved professor. To the composer of Howard's Alma Mater, our French and music professor, we deign to dedicate the Entre Nous of 1939, to Professor Paul de Launay.

Foreword

WITHIN THESE PAGES MEMORIES OF ONE YEAR OF YOUR COLLEGE LIFE WILL BE PORTRAYED IN CONCENTRATED FORM. WHEN GRAY HAIRS MULTIPLY THEMSELVES, LEGS GROW WEARY AND THE SIGHT BLEARED, PULL UP A CHAIR WITH YOUR FAVORITE GRANDCHILD ON ONE KNEE AND THE ENTRE NOUS ON THE OTHER. RELIVE THE HALF-FORGOTTEN HOURS UNDER "SHERMAN OAK"; THE MAD DASH THROUGH THE ARCH TO CATCH THE 12:30 STREET CAR; SEE AGAIN THE FRIENDS YOU ALTERNATELY FOUGHT AND PLAYED; FIND THE VERY BENCH UPON WHICH YOU MADE YOUR FIRST DATE WITH SALLY; AGAIN SMELL THE ODORS FROM SCIENCE HALL AND TASTE THE SANDWICHES FROM CO-OP. IF WE OF THE ENTRE NOUS STAFF CAN BE INSTRUMENTAL IN BRINGING BACK PLEASANT MEMORIES OF THE YEAR 1939, THEN WE FEEL GRATIFIED WITH OUR EFFORTS.

MAIN, Ethiopia, Science Hall, and Sherman Oak, these are the views which make up Howard College. Then we see the familiar faces of our Professors in the registrar's office reporting the absences of those students who unfortunately failed to attend classes. Dean Burns and Dr. Chapman off together for lunch; Mrs. Griffith with that ever-willing attitude; Dr. Brakefield hearing from his many students; Dr. Thomas always attending his classes, and then we see Professor Causey giving of his valuable time to students who think they have a problem which cannot be solved. Then our last peep is in the library, where we see many of the faculty members, and students, relaxing while reading some of the works from Aristotle, Shakespeare, or maybe an article on the world problem of today—this is college life.

T. V. NEAL

P R E S I D E N T

Since June, 1932, Dr. T. V. Neal has served Howard College as president. During this term the college has been beset by difficulties, and has also had its share of prosperity. Despite the depression the Science Hall has been completed, the library has been remodeled, enlarged, and refurnished, and several sorority lodges erected. Dr. Neal has sent in his resignation to take effect June 30, 1939. His friends hope that his new work may give full scope to his characteristic energy, and resourcefulness.

DEAN PERCY P. BURNS

He is the modern interpreter of Shakespeare, who through his own knowledge and understanding of this genius, implants within his students the desire to obtain for themselves a like knowledge and understanding of Shakespeare. It is a privilege to be enrolled as a member of his overflowing classes and to partake of his graciously offered information and wisdom. He is tolerant of the misdemeanors of others but a strict taskmaster to himself in his own efforts in building and enlarging the scope of learning for his students. May the students who have rested under your influence and tutelage repay their debt of gratitude to you by living a richer and more useful life!

DEAN LOUISE OBENCHAIN

Mrs. Obenchain besides being an advisor of girls finds time to teach several courses in Sociology. There the many students hear one who is vitally interested in the welfare of our fellow man. After hearing these lectures we can easily understand why she is a Dean of Women. Mrs. Obenchain gives advice to many girls in an understanding way, helping to solve their many problems. We see Mrs. Obenchain in many different phases of college life: hurrying to her class room to impart knowledge; back to her office to advise some bewildered student; and a gracious hostess at some afternoon tea. She is an epitaph that any young girl should be. She is a model worthy of imitation by the young women of Howard College.

VIEW LOOKING EAST

Main Building is the center of all administrative and most of the student activity. The most interesting place on the campus is the lobby of Main, where can be seen professors and students chatting between classes. The walls of Main have given happiness to the students down through the years at Howard.

IN MEMORIAM

HAROLD DUNNAM

The passing of Harold Dunnam C'38, is here-in commemorated by his many friends in this final tribute. During his undergraduate days his scholastic abilities were acknowledged by his election to the professional educational honor fraternity, the Kappa Phi Kappa, and by his election to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. In following Shakespeare's "Four Stages of Man's Life," he as editor of the 1938 Entre Nous, made a pleasing success of his endeavors. Since his graduation from Howard College he had been confined to his home in serious illness, which led to his decease on January 30, 1939.

THE four following classes represented are the Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen. On these pages are listed their honors presented to them during their student days at Howard College. The classes consist of various types of students, the honor student and those less gifted with knowledge and initiative. The beauties rest side by side with the beast. We present them to you in their entire diversity.

THE SENIOR CLASS

HENRY ANDERTON—Sigma Nu. A man about the campus. His activities are varied and his honors profuse. Space limits our listing all his honors. So here are a few. Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, Editor of Bull Pup, Assistant Editor of ENTRE NOUS, Student Council, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, May Day Honor Court, CRIMSON Staff, and Ushers Club. See the editor for further honors.

• HAL BENNETT—Hal hails from Hartselle with a magnetic voice when it comes to swaying his audiences, and capturing all the honors that Howard offers. He was elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, Trident, May Day Honor Court, Assistant Editor of CRIMSON, Ministerial Association, and B. S. U. Council. Hal, we'll have the rest of your honors printed later. • LOONEY DODD BENTLEY—Delta Zeta. The red haired president of the Delta Zeta's. She is a local lass who knows her way about. Member Booklovers, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, W. A. A., President Pan-Hellenic, and Chairman of May Day. • JOHN OTHA BLACK—John will long be remembered as the friendly mail carrier for the Howard students and faculty. He was Vice-President Mission Band, Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, a member of the Glee Club, College Choir, and a member of the Ministerial Association. From Decatur, Ala.

• BEN BROWDY—Ben finds his "goal" in basketball. Member of the "H" Club, and basketball. Birmingham, Alabama. • ELMER BRUNSON—Elmer is a distinguished member of the Ministerial Association and Glee Club. Elba, Alabama. • MARGARET BURFORD—A petite blonde who has set about making a name for Howard as well as herself. She was elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, May Day Honor Court, ENTRE NOUS Staff, Student Council, Gail Patrick Cup, Masquers, Beauty Parade, and Cheer Leader. Birmingham, Alabama. • HOMER CARLISLE—A Kappa Psi and a student of Pharmacy. Homer comes from Alexander City, Alabama. •

JAMES CARTER—Jimmy is one of those boys who helped to make the Bulldogs famous on the gridiron. He is a member of the "H" Club and hails from Mobile. • CHARLES CLARK—Sigma Nu. He is the reason why so many students quit college—they can't compete with such intelligence. He was voted the most intellectual in the Who's Who contest. Elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities, a member of Alpha Epsilon Delta, Chi Alpha Sigma, Masquers, Scholarship Day, Business Manager of the BULL PUP, Ushers Club and Trident. Wetumpka, Alabama. • ELIZABETH COFFEY—Elizabeth besides being a part of the Science Hall was a member of the CRIMSON Staff, Assistant Editor of the Freshman Edition of the CRIMSON, and Society Editor of the ENTRE NOUS. Birmingham, Alabama. • LANIER DE LORME—He squires the girls around when he isn't assisting in the Biology Lab, or taking exercises, a Pre-Med. Student, and member of Alpha Epsilon. Birmingham, Alabama. • ISRAEL DOMBROW—Israel is one of those quiet boys you never know is around until it comes to making the grades. Birmingham, Alabama. • L. W. FADELY—Pi Kappa Alpha. L. W. is an orator if there ever was one. A member of Delta Kappa, Kappa Psi, and is a Pharmacy major practicing in Dad's drugstore. • RALPH FEILD—Words fail us. Ralph with a pleasing personality has won all the honors that a college could offer to such a promising student. He has been president of all three of his classes and president of the Student Body his fourth year, Vice-President of the State B. S. U., President Y. M. C. A., member of Masquers, Glee Club, Ushers Club, International Relations Club, Trident, and elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. FEATURED in the following sections are the two most popular athletic activities at Howard College, football and basketball. The heroes that enabled us to win over our opponents in that football classic, the Howard-Southern game, are pictured here along with the stellar basketball teams of near champions. We laud the past efforts and successes of all participants of athletic activities and hope for greater successes in the future.

CHEERLEADERS

The Howard student body was lead in yells under the capable leadership of Jimmie Redd, head cheerleader, with Margaret Burford, Jappie Bryant, Gordon Berry, Billie Gwin, and Joe Gomperts as assistants.

The HOWARD

The coaching staff of Howard is considered one of the best, having as head football and basketball coach William H. Bancroft, better known to the Howard students as "Coach Bill." He has been coach since his graduation from Howard in 1928. Coach Bill was assistant football and freshman basketball coach for seven years, being made head coach and athletic director upon the resignation of "Shorty" Propst in 1935. During his four years at Howard, Coach Bill has led the Bulldogs to the Dixie Conference Championship twice. And this year he led the Bulldogs to one of the greatest victories of the season, that of winning over our rival Birmingham-Southern 25-0.

Assisting Coach Bill was Coach Raymond Davis, known to the students as "Coach Ray." He was one of the best centers while playing football at Howard, and now known as one of the best line coaches in the South.

COACH WILLIAM H. BANCROFT, Head Coach
COACH RAYMOND DAVIS, Assistant Coach

Coach Ray has recently resigned from Howard, accepting a position at Louisiana Tech. Coach Jim Stewart will resign his duties as freshman coach and become line coachman for the Bulldogs.

The Howard College Bulldogs captained by Herman Hodges and alternated by Boyce Stone is herein congratulated for their splendid football season. Even more important than winning is the sportsmanship with which they conduct themselves on and off the gridiron. Howard's scrappy Bulldogs opened their 1938 football schedule against the Mississippi State Maroons at Starkville, Mississippi. The Bulldogs held the Southern team scoreless during the first half and only after the second half had begun did the Staters score. The score was 19-0 in favor of Mississippi, but the Bulldogs were to be praised for their excellent play. They had the ball on State's 2-yard line when the whistle blew ending the first half. In the Howard offense Clyde White and Joe Gann were the outstanding stars, while all the linemen were playing good ball and opening wide holes for the offense. On the Saturday following the Mississippi State game the Bulldogs journeyed down to play the Alabama Crimson Tide at Tuscaloosa. The Tide was too much for Howard, and the score was 34-0 in favor of Alabama. Alabama made whole team substitutions, and the so-called second team outdid the first team. Howard's scoring efforts were bottled up sufficiently to hold them within midfield most all the afternoon. The Howard line played good ball again and George Daugherty and Bruce Little averaged 37 yards in 11 punts.

Howard next met Western Kentucky State Teacher's College, and the inefficiency to hold the ball while running plays cost the Dogs the game. Western won 6-0, but Howard lost numerous scoring chances by fumbles. There was a total of 8 fumbles made by the Bulldogs. The team as a whole showed good spirit in this game and had tough luck in losing such a hard-fought game. Howard next played Chattanooga in Chattanooga and the Bulldogs really outplayed the Moccasins although they lost 13-6. Howard dominated the whole ball game, even though they lost. Time and time again they marched deep into Chattanooga territory only to be held for downs or penalized. Chattanooga made 8 first downs to 9 for Howard. Yards gained were 239 for Chattanooga and 396 for Howard. The outstanding Bulldogs were Windham and Daugherty in the backfield and Captain Hodges and Schenker and Tuggle in the line. For Chattanooga Terry, Orend and Barbee were the outstanding men.

★ ★ The GRIDIR HOW

The CAPTAINS

The Bulldog eleven of 1938 was lead into battle by Captain Herman Hodges, of Hartford, Ala. Herman, a good pass receiver and defensive man will be greatly missed next year. Co-Capt. Boyce Stone, from Albertville, has shown unusual ability on the gridiron for his consistent playing at guard. These two captains will long be remembered for their leadership at Howard.

RESUME OF SEASON

There are nine of these outstanding Bulldogs who have made history for their Alma Mater. They have taken off their football togs, never to wear again on the gridiron for Howard, but in the minds of the many students they will wear their togs forever. Gentlemen, I give you Herman Hodges, captain of the 1939 Bulldogs. Herman has starred at Howard for three years at the end position. In his junior year he was alternate captain of the team and in his senior he was one of the outstanding performers. He was voted on the second

All-Conference team. Boyce Stone, alternate captain, was one of the sturdy linemen who made the Howard forewall famous for its staunch defense and its hole opening on the offense. He will be sorely missed next year. Hugh Smith, another lineman whose name will always be remembered for his swell performance against the Panthers. Hugh was a regular performer at a guard position. Joe Gann, first string quarterback, led the team while on the field. His generalship was always excellent and his quick thinking saved the team many times during the season. He did most of the kicking for the extra point and led interference for the ball carriers. Clyde White, star halfback, was All-Conference his junior year, but injuries kept him on the sidelines most of his senior year. However, when able to play, he was one of the best backs on the squad. His performance against Southern was an excellent day's work and will long be remembered. Harley Hopkins, sensational halfback, returned to his form his senior year and led the Bulldogs to a very successful season. He was injured his junior year, but his sophomore and senior years Harley was an outstanding yard gainer and scorer and was honorable mention for little All-American this year. Nathan Schenker, Howard's All-Dixie Conference for two years and All-S. I. A. A. on the second team, was without doubt the leader of the Howard line. This 215-pound lineman will be hard to replace next year. James Carter was Howard's reliable understudy at the quarterback position. Quick to figure out the opposition's defense, this man was rushed into the game to help the offense. Jimmie was a good blocker and a good signal caller. Bill Ross was the only senior center on the club, and his experience helped to steady the club more than any other factor. His good performance against Southern was his best of the year. A big husky player like Ross will be missed next year.

Goldman, Schenker, Smith, Golson, Stone, Tuggle, Hodges, Crawford, Daugherty, Gann, Windham.

OUR FIRST and

Outstanding were the plays made by both teams this season in which they exhibited power, speed and defensive strength. It was in the Spring Hill victory that Sam Goldman, 200 pounds, from Cleveland, Ohio, made the first touchdown, and George Daugherty, 180 pounds, Cleveland, Ohio, made the second touchdown. As tackles, Nathan Schenker, 200 pounds, from Cleveland, Ohio, and Boyce Stone, 184 pounds, from Albertville, were great. Gordon Golsen, 195 pounds, was the starting center. Known for his splendid blocking was Joe Gann, 165 pounds, from Birmingham. T. A. Windham, 168 pounds, from Hartford, exhibited some fine punting during the season. From Oak Grove comes Talmadge Tuggle, 220 pounds, tackle, which Howard proudly boasts. Hugh Smith, 163 pounds, guard from Birmingham, and Herman Hodges, 175 pounds, from Hartford, were two of the outstanding seniors, who helped make up this first string eleven. It is the second team which cause the members of the first team to put out in order to keep their places. Willard Huckaby, 185 pounds, from Lafayette, will be captain of the 1940 "Bulldogs." Others on the second team were: Auxford Watkins, 195 pounds, Birmingham, end; Charlie Davis, 175 pounds, tackle, Birmingham; Kilburn Elrod, 185 pounds, guard, Douglas; Bill Ross, 170 pounds, center, Roselle Park, N. J.; Jack Moore, 195 pounds, guard, Birmingham; William Hammond, 175 pounds, end, Reform; Harley Hopkins, 170 pounds, back, Hueytown; Bruce Little, 158 pounds, back, Piedmont; J. L. Brock, 175 pounds, back, Gadsden; Kenneth Morgan, 160 pounds, back, Alabama City; Jimmie Carter, back, 150 pounds, Mobile; Otis Hardy, 147 pounds, back, Alexander City; Clyde White, 157 pounds, back, Hanceville; Murphy Courington, 190 pounds, center, Jasper; Charles Douglas, 180 pounds, center, Parrish; Irby Seigler, 190 pounds, tackle, Guntersville.

The HOWARD-BIRMING

Look at that scoreboard . . . that's just what everyone was saying, when those touchdowns were being piled up for Howard. Once again the Panthers and the Bulldogs met for the annual Battle-of-the-Marne, in which the Bulldogs successfully and overwhelmingly won. Just take another look at that scoreboard, 25-0. After that one point loss last year, those Bulldogs were determined, if it was a whole year later. Rain . . . Cloudy . . . Cold . . . Yes, but who would mind a little thing like that, when dear old Howard was marching on to Victory? Howard was kept rather back on its heels during the first quarter, but after that was when the fun began. Howard thus took the ball on its own 28 just as the second quarter began and drove 72 yards to a first touchdown in 10 plays. Daugherty carried the ball eight times, and on his last carry broke through the line and then away from a mass of Panthers who seemed to have him in tow to run 24 yards across the goal. The second touchdown, fashioned on the fourth play after the return to the field following the half intermission was much simpler in the reacquisition. The kick-off was returned to the Howard 39 and Daugherty tore off 12 yards on the first play. No gain, four yards, both by Daugherty, and Joe Gann called a pass. White threw it 29 yards or so to Hodges, who was speeding down the left sideline. The

HAM SOUTHERN GAME

Bulldog captain caught it on the dead run just beyond two Panthers and sprinted on to an added six points for the Bulldogs. The White-Crawford aerial combination worked for a 39-yard score early in the fourth quarter, running the count to 18 to 0. Daugherty again got away, breaking through a wide gap in the Panther line for 78 yards, making his second and the Bulldog's fourth touchdown.

Several other outstanding players on the Howard eleven were Nathan Schenker and Willard Huckaby, the tackles who exhibited some fine playing against their rivals. Each of the Bulldogs is to be CONGRATULATED on his fine playing, in showing the many fans that they were the masters of the gridiron at Legion Field. Truly a heart breaker for Birmingham-Southern.

FOOTBALL

The Howard College Bullpups, under the able coaching of Coach Stuart and Snell, had a most successful season, winning four games and losing only one. The Bullpups opened the season with the Mississippi Frosh. in which they met their only defeat, 6-0. The Chattanooga Rats were licked, 6-0. The Pups next met the Jacksonville Frosh, playing one of the best games of the season, and coming through with a 26-0 victory. St. Bernard bowed to the Howard Freshman, 13-0. Then came another thriller, when in their last game the Bullpups came out victorious over their arch-rivals, the Southern Panthers, 14-6. Outstanding Pups in this game were, Kennie Baker, end; Durwood Williamson, halfback; Darse Faughender, center; and Dan Zobrosky, fullback. Other members of the first-string eleven are "Fats" Hause, quarterback; David Drake, guard; Lewis Norris, guard; Vincent Ralph, halfback; Waltine Jackson, end; Robert Armstrong, tackle; W. D. Howell, tackle; Woodrow Taylor, tackle; Dwight Stone, end; and Charles Qualls, center. Other outstanding players during the season were: Billie Riddle, guard; Randle Arante, halfback; Ralph Sibley, guard; L. B. Riddle, tackle; Carl Folds, guard, and Frank Haynes, fullback. Each player is to be congratulated upon his fine playing and willing spirit.

RS the BULLPUPS

BASKETBALL

The Bullpups again exhibited some fine playing, when they won 10 basketball games out of 16. They showed superior floor work over Warrior, gaining a 56-34 victory, and a 60-49 victory over the Sixth Ave. Preds. The Pups won two games over Tarrant City 43-28, 47-32, and two over Stockham, 42-32 and 52-38. They won one game each over Phillips, 33-29; Hokes Bluff, 49-26; Birmingham-Southern, 33-31, and Barber's Dairy, 39-35. The Bullpups lost one game to Barber's Dairy, 29-31 and one to Ensley, 41-51. Two losses went to the strong Alabama team, 21-

40 and 31-51. The Pups, in the last two games of the season lost by a close margin to their cross-town rivals Birmingham-Southern, 36-42 and 30-32. There was some valuable material among this group of Bullpups, material that may graduate into the varsity next year. This deserving team was composed of: David Drake, guard; Orville "Fats" Hause, guard; Billie Gwin, forward; Durwood Williamson, guard; Dan Zobrosky, guard; Darse Faughender, center; Carl Folds, guard; John Jeffers, forward; Waltine Jackson, forward; Kennie Baker, guard; and Ralph Sibley, manager.

The Howard Basketball team had one of the best seasons in the history of the school when it won 24 games and lost 5. This is an outstanding record because some of the best teams in the South were played. They were the University of Alabama, Mississippi State College, Mississippi College, the Celtics, Jacksonville State Teachers College, and Millsaps. Howard lost one game to Mis-issippi State, one to Jacksonville and one to the Celtics by a two-point margin. Alabama defeated the Bulldogs by 8 points, and Mississippi College defeated them by 10 points. However, Howard revenged the losses to Mississippi State and Jacksonville by defeating them by narrow margins in the other games. Mississippi College was defeated twice by the Bulldogs, but the Bulldogs lost the final game in the tournament to them and thereby making Mississippi College the Dixie Conference champions and Howard the runner-up. In league competition Howard had an unequaled record. The Bulldogs won 14 games and lost one. These wins included 2 over Mississippi College, 2 from Millsaps, 3 from Birmingham-Southern, 2 from Chattanooga, 2 from Southwestern, 2 from Mercer, and one from Loyola. The only loss was to Mississippi College. In the "Big Five" race the Bulldogs ran roughshod over all competition, winning 8 games and losing none. The Big Five trophy now belongs to Howard and the City College trophy rests beside it because the Southern Panthers fell three times before the Bulldogs in quick succession. Howard was easily the winner in all three games.

Other wins for this outstanding team included Northeast Center Louisiana Tech and Southern University from Lakeland, Florida. The team this past year depended on Baker and Goldman to get the ball from the backboards and get it up the floor to Telford, Burks, and Turner. This is known as the fast break—then if the basket wasn't made the Bulldogs set up under their basket and worked out plays given them by the coach. This system led to the most successful season in years at Howard. Coach Jim Stuart did one of the best coaching jobs in the history of Howard when he led his charges through 24 victories out of the 29 games played. Coach Stuart and his players are to be congratulated on such a fine basketball team.

The

Dave Telford, senior guard, had the best year of his career when he scored 240 points. Telford was once placed on the All-Conference team, and this year he was an unanimous choice for All-Conference first team. Alternate Captain Ben Browdy, although not playing all the time, saw plenty of service. Many will remember his sensational shot against Mississippi College, and always this player was ready to pull Howard out of a tight spot. Howard Burks was the main cog in the Howard offense, and was the leading scorer with a total of 300 points for the year. He is an All-Conference man in his junior year and also honorable mention for All-American. Sam Goldman, the only sophomore on the starting line-up, was a good follow man and could pass with the best of the players. Brutus Baker, senior center, finished his college career as a member of the second All-Conference team. In his first year Brutus was All-Conference. Good at following and defense, this center scored 217 points. James Gurley, another tall man who devoted most of his time to following the ball, was a senior with plenty of experience. Edwin Welch, a sophomore sensation who could always be relied upon, is one of the most promising basketball players ever to enter Howard. Herman Hodges, a veteran of many years experience, was always ready to lend a helping hand when the game got tough and rugged. Harlow Cather and Leonard Burton, two former Woodlawn cagers, were always ready to go in and give the game a little pep by their fast passing and clever ball handling. Last but not least comes Nathan Schenker, the sturdy cager who always gave the fans a show of brain and brawn working at the same time. He was a favorite of the cager fans and always showed up to fine playing ability.

Captain Dave Telford lead the Bulldogs with great interest playing excellent ball himself, and having as his Alternate Captain Ben Browdy, who also showed unusual ability in some of his outstanding plays.

IC ASSOCIATION

Fostering sportsmanship and promoting a love of activity for its own sake are the two paramount purposes of the W. A. A. Any girl according to the point system, who has fifty points is admitted to the association. The points are gained by coming out for seven practices in one of the major sports. To obtain a letter in athletics, a member must earn 750 points in sports. The sports program and point system have been reorganized so that smaller groups can participate at any time. Counselors were elected at the beginning of the year to promote the various activities by organizing groups to participate in the major sports. The counselors are Marguerite Payne, bicycling; Martha Taylor, skating; Bede Davies, tennis; Brunice Cain, badminton, and Rose Watkins, hiking. The W. A. A. sponsors a district play day for high school girls of Walker and Jefferson counties during the fall. Members of the association act as group leaders and referees for the games during the program.

The Howard Crimson is in its twenty-fourth year of publication. It is published weekly by the students of Howard College, and is truly the "Mirror of Campus Life." The Crimson is representative of all students, faculty, and organizations. Each year the classes publish one edition of The Crimson, and then a loving cup is awarded to the editor whose issue is judged the best. This creates an interest in journalism and creative writing. Every Friday Howard students are seen on the campus, walking down the streets and on the street cars reading their favorite newspaper. May The Crimson continue in the many years to come to be an integral part of the college life of the Howard students.

THE 1939 ENTRE NOUS

T H E A N N U A L P U B L I C A T I O N

ARMINDA HOWELL Editor-in-Chief

WYATT POPE Business Manager

The Entre Nous is the annual publication of Howard College. The words "Entre Nous" are taken from the French language and mean "between us." This is truly characteristic of our annual, as its contents portray the life and activities of the students on the Howard Campus. It is very difficult to place each person in the annual unless the staff has the full cooperation of both the students and faculty members. We have with much effort endeavored to place each person and organization. We realize the inad-vertencies of the book and can only ask that you will be considerate of our efforts. The Entre Nous has lived through these many years at Howard, and will probably continue being the leading publication of this institution. It has been our aim to give to the students a concise view of our college days at Howard. If we haven't, we feel that we have failed in our aim. But, we hope that you will find much happiness, when turning through these pages of the Entre Nous, and in the years to come, treasure its contents.

THE students of Howard College are proud and vitally interested in the numerous organizations found on the campus. The illustrations and comments herein made concern every society including honor societies, social fraternities and sororities, literary societies, and any organization that benefits the student or college. The social organizations offer amusement for their members, and members of the honor societies are benefitted and in turn benefit their societies.

The ORGANIZATIONS

The Student Council, which is the highest student governing group at Howard, has the responsible job of supervising the business affairs of the student body. The president of the student body who is elected by popular vote, presides over the meetings of the Council. The representatives in the Student Council are elected from their respective classes at the rate of four from the senior class, three from the junior class, two from the sophomore class, and one from the freshman class. Serving with President Ralph Field are: D. C. Stringfellow, Vice-President; Gussie Burton, Secretary; Jack Thompson, Treasurer, and the representatives from the four different classes.

Trident is recognized as the highest honor that may be conferred on a young man at Howard College. The members of Trident are tapped from those Juniors who have maintained a high scholarship average in all their work and who are eminent in campus life by reason of college activities and the esteem in which they are held by faculty and students. The founders of Trident were aware that it would take more than ordinary ability to be active in the extra-curricular events of the college and, at the same time, maintain a high scholastic average. Its standards are high and those who attain it are eminently worthy of the honor.

The purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association is to associate young women in personal loyalty to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord; to lead them into membership and service in the Christian character and service through physical, social, mental and spiritual training and to become a social force for the extension of the kingdom of God. The monthly meetings are luncheons held at Ruhama Baptist Church, where outstanding leaders of Birmingham in their respective fields speak to the members. One of their prominent activities each year is the sponsoring of May Day.

WOMEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT

[120]

Anderton, Bennett, Burford, Clark, Field
Hodges, Howell, Isbell, Scroggins, Walker, Walls

The idea of creating one national basis of recognition for students, devoid of politics, initiation fees, and dues was conceived over five years ago. Thus Who's Who Among Students In American Universities and Colleges came about. Published annually is a compilation of biographies of the outstanding students in America. Only juniors, seniors and students in advanced work are selected. The purpose of Who's Who is to serve: as an incentive for students to get most out of their college careers, as a means of compensation to students for what they have already done, as a recommendation to the business world, and as a standard of measurement for students comparable to such agencies as Phi Beta Kappa and the Rhodes Scholarship Award. To be included in Who's Who, a student must have a combination of qualities to indicate that he is an asset to his school. The qualities are: Character, Leadership, Scholarship, and Potentialities of future usefulness to business and society.

The Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity was founded at the Medical College of Virginia, School of Pharmacy in 1879, and is the oldest of all fraternities in the field of Pharmacy. It strictly limits its membership to students and graduates of recognized pharmacy schools. Its purposes are to foster good fellowship and brotherhood, to encourage and support research in the various branches of pharmaceutical endeavor. Its members are selected largely on the basis of acceptable scholarship.

Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Delta Theta, Beta Sigma Omicron, Delta Zeta, and Phi Mu, are the five national sororities at Howard College. They lend gaiety to the social life of the institution, and offer a special phase of college life to the women who enter upon this campus. These lovely cottages add to the beauty of the Howard campus.

Alma Mater

*Oh, Howard, Alma Mater true,
I love thy glorious name, deserving every honor due
To an unsullied fame,
I'll love thee through each fleeting breath
For all that thou has done,
And in the agonies of death
Be still thy loving son.*

*Oh, Alma Mater, dear, thy life
A treasure is to me;
Thou, Phoenix fair, through flames and strife,
Hast shown thy right to be.
Since poverty has made thee rich
And struggle made thee strong,
I view thee in thy self-made niche,
And burst to filial song.*

*Oh, parent true, the future fair
Must hold but good for thee,
For hope's fruition waits thee there
In blest reality.
And sons like thine will make thee shine
With glory all thine own,
And bring to thy maternal shrine
Not gifts of gold alone.*

*Words by DR. G. W. MACON, '84.
Music by PROF. PAUL DE LAUNAY.*

A Sermon in a Seed

*When that small seed within the ground,
Looks up at nature's call and says, "I will."
Then pushes upward, darkness all around,
It shows poor human souls,
How God can say, "My child,
Look up, and grow, and learn of me."*

*Then when the human soul can say, "I will."
It too looks up through darkness all around,
And grows—and learns.*

By HAL BENNETT.

Death on Yesterday

*And I saw Death on yesterday;
It was not then a dreadful thing.
Quietly IT came within
And straightway was without again.
The surgeon could not hold the Life,
The Life itself seemed want to go.
The interne saw the breathing—slow,
Then looked again and it was gone.*

*The surgeon made the cut;
A clean, a beautiful gash,
And on each side, the fat
Laid bare, shown red gold
Quivering there.*

*And I saw Life come back anew;
Come pleading, in the form to stay,
And white robed nurses moved
Softly and quickly.
Death to them was old.
The sleep giver made the form to sleep;
From this sleep would it never wake again
For Death, determined, had entered in.*

*That form, that lump below,
Is still a human form—
That gash—those layers quivering,
Then lying strangely without motion.*

*And I saw Death on yesterday.
It seemed indeed a quiet thing—
A breathing, then—no beat,
No breathing coming yet again.*

WHEELER TRAINING

A MARKET FOR YOUR COLLEGE EDUCATION

Many graduates of universities and colleges and others who have attended colleges, realize that their higher education is only foundational.

Some of them, through making applications for positions, have discovered that a general education is not enough. Modern business asks not only, "What do you know?" but "What can you do?"

Many employers prefer college-trained young people. A Wheeler Secretarial training supplies the link between a college training and a good position.

Wheeler has helped scores of college graduates to bridge the gap and find a market for their college education. Call, write, or phone for further information.
